

THE LEAGUE OF CURIOSITY
PRESENTS

CAMPFIRE TALES

CAMPFIRE TALES

Traditional tales told around a campfire with accompanying live music.
A unique, family outdoor storytelling show!

THE SHOW

Embark on a magical journey of captivating storytelling, marvellous live music, and stupendous songs with the League of Curiosity's 'Campfire Tales'.

Join two of the League's finest travelling storytellers, Prof Jigget and Trembleton, around a warming campfire, to hear stories of magic, mayhem, and nonsense.

Each story is told to live music and original songs to take you on a sonic journey of imagination.

Stories include traditional folklore, fairy tales, myths and legends such as:
'Wizard OO-AAH'
'Thor's journey to the land of the Giants
'Only Me'
'Princess Vasalisa and the Firebird' and much, much more!

RUN TIMES

The performance lasts 40 minutes and includes two stories.

AGE GUIDANCE

The show is suitable for 5 years +

VENUES & PRESENTATION

Campfire Tales is performed by a storyteller and a musician/singer.

The set consists of a 2m tall stall for a keyboard, and a selection of suitcases and small props.

The piece is suitable for a variety of spaces, both indoors and outdoors - including libraries, museums, studio spaces, community centres, parks, community gardens, and forest schools,

For indoor spaces, we provide two fake campfires.

For outdoor spaces, we can either provide the campfires, the venue can provide the campfires, or the performance can have no campfire.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

The show is completely self sufficient in terms of lighting and sound - specifically for non-traditional & outdoor spaces. However, as the piece can be presented in various ways, there are varying technical requirements.

For non-traditional indoor spaces:

- access to power supply for keyboard and speaker
- 4x4 m performance space

For outdoor spaces WITHOUT a campfire:

- Wet weather provisions e.g. canopy/gazebo.
